

Prophetic Word

2019 will be a year of Difference and Acceleration

“Difference” is a point or way in which people or things are not the same any longer. It is also a distinguishing of members or branches of a family.

“Acceleration” is a pushing, a quickening, surge, and escalation.

1. There will be many opportunities for ‘offense’ this year. Be prepared; you will need to walk in wisdom. Families will separate over things that are small; fathers will grow weary in trying to minimize the damage, and many tears will be shed without restoration. What looks hopeless will only be repaired through fasting and prayer. Not a harsh word; not a severing or reprimand will restore the relationship, but a word of wisdom and continual prayer. It will be easy to point the finger at the church, the leadership, and parents. The real struggle will be to address your own failings, lack of prayer and commitment.
2. The changes in America will be catastrophic. Mobile homes will exceed in sales as adults begin to look for means of escape from unstable communities. The world will become darker and under much threat. Many will ask, “What’s going on? Are we the only ones still sane?” still there will be no answer. The temptation to quarantine yourself and isolate will be ongoing. Resist it. Forsake not the assembly of yourselves together even more-so as you see the day approaching.
3. The eroding of freedom and rights will continue at such acceleration that the government will not be able to override the corruption of the judicial system. Judges will take broader liberties and form new laws within their counties, and states will govern themselves without government oversight. To counter this, an undercover vigilante system will surface within communities.
4. Whom you associate and align yourself with will have great influence on you and your family. Many will say, “This person will never change my understanding of The Scripture. I am rock-solid in my faith. I can still associate with them. They will not influence me.” Yet they will. “Now the Spirit clearly says that in the last times some will depart from the faith and pay attention to seducing spirits and doctrines of devils” (1 Tim. 4:1)
5. Godless ministers will condone the sin of abortion, infanticide & euthanasia (under the guise of “mercy killing”). There will be an acceleration globally to have clergy align themselves with political agendas. Some will be paid to attend seminaries which will train them to speak on certain subjects and interpret scripture according to a new government agenda.
6. Witchcraft will become a fascination and an accelerated movement that will lure many into total darkness. Toy companies will promote demonic and paranormal games. Tarot cards will be simplified to preteen levels. Even children’s birthday parties will begin to include witchcraft and invite paranormal presence to attend their celebration. The church must be ready and understand deliverance and take seriously the influence of sorcery. They must warn their youth and families. Do not minimize the effect this will have on families lives if they entertain or open a door to this.

7. I heard the Holy Spirit say ‘Snitch’– swipe, steal, walk off with... Hold tight to your healing, your promise, your blessing, your peace, your marriage, your home, your hope, and the word that God has spoken to you. The enemy will make every attempt to Snitch it this year.

8. Those in leadership and within the entertainment industry that thought to operate undercover in Pedophilia rings and Satanic Ritual Abuse will be exposed. This revealing will be more than people can stomach. Many will grieve as little to nothing will be done to prosecute it or prevent it. As witchcraft rises, so will Satanic Ritual Abuse on children and people of all ages.

9. The compromise of legalizing marijuana will be the beginning of the end for many. What has been used recreationally, smoked medicinally, and continued as it is ‘commonly grown’, will be altered (even-moreso now) and begin to cause great paranoia and fear within many. They will fiercely defend their addictions, causing much division within families. Personalities will change and many will become aggressive. The mind altering effects will by-far change lives forever. Once they have entered this arena, without My delivering power, they will become enslaved to its effects.

10. The increase of hatred against Israel and those who are Jewish will take center stage as the Middle East boils. Be prepared to take backlash if you bless Israel and its people. You will be persecuted alongside them if you defend them openly, but I will bless them that bless Israel; and although their nation will soon stand alone against all others to defend themselves, I will stand with them, says the Lord; for I have a covenant with them and it remains.

11. It will be easy to desensitize yourself as you watch disaster after disaster occur. Even the media will ignore long-term devastation. Plagues and unknown diseases will stump medical doctors; mental insanity will overwhelm hospitals, prisons, and communities. What others label as mental and emotional instability, even clinical psychiatrists and physicians will recognize the roots of spiritual strongholds and demonic influences. My delivering power must operate within Believer’s lives.

12. People will crave danger without a second thought. They will attempt to outrun a hurricane, tornado, fire, or even a flood, and the insanity of Reality Challenges will lure youth into the next adrenaline rush.

13. A spirit of division will separate marriages, families and churches. The intensity of this attack will leave many defenseless and caught off guard. Some will begin to cry out to God to save them, while others will abandon the ship and jump overboard. They would rather float it alone then have to deal with the attack. They will not be able to see nor understand that the battle is not flesh and blood... but spiritual. Those who fast and pray will see deliverance and healing. Stand in the power of His might, not yours, and resist the urge to compromise.

14. A great famine will cover the land. The famine for righteousness and preaching of the Word of God as prophesied in Amos chapter 8 verses 11-12 will accelerate. The true gifts of the Holy Spirit and move of His presence have been shut down in many churches for years. This has caused a lack of the “Rain of His presence”. The ground which once nourished the Word to grow has become brittle and the Word is no longer preached in many places. Those who are familiar with the move of the Spirit of God will hunger after it with fierceness and Believers will drive long distances to find God in the house.

15. The weather will far exceed any prediction. It will mirror what is happening in the spirit realm; for what is released from people’s lips and actions will take form and begin to be seen in the atmosphere around them. Destruction will parallel the spiritual condition of man. Some will see the prophetic happening right before their eyes and know that they are seeing a warning from the Lord and will seek My face for direction. They will come under My covering.

16. The hidden things that man has thought were secret will be made manifest. I will expose the deep. The hearts of men that are hardened with excuses and apathy will be forced to choose, for they can no longer lie with their mouths and worship Me in one breath. There will be no more excuses! A man will be known by the truth he speaks. If he says he will do it, I will hold him to it! You must be careful with your words as I am with mine, says the Lord..

17. The shaking of events that will occur globally, will cause souls, prodigals, the most darkened of sinners to seek My face and repent and turn from their sin. Many will cry out to me from their hellish-places of bondage and I will hear them and deliver them. I will send them to you. Be prepared to welcome them and disciple them in My Word.

18. The church will be as a haven of rest for those who worship together in Spirit and in Truth; for to be under the covering of prayer and anointing will be as a River of Life. The stronger the battle, the more the church must be faithful to gather. Those outside the household of faith, who believe they can make it without the Holy Spirit and do not need the fellowship of Believers, will become vulnerable to grave (severe – momentous) attacks from the enemy. They will lose much; for they will not have the strength to stand alone. ~ Get under the cover of My anointing, says the Lord, and do not move.

In the Spirit, those who will not minimize their time in My Presence will sense the rain of My anointing with such a quickening that many will come from afar to sit where the Spirit of the Lord is. In many rural places, there will be standing room only, for the house will be full. Where healing and deliverance is welcome, it will begin to manifest without hands being laid on. Even as they enter the building and worship fills the house, so will My saving deliverance, My healing power, and My Word be established. Believers that lay hands on the sick and do the works of God will have signs and wonders manifest quickly in their lives and ministry. I will honor them and make myself known to them that honor My Word.
