

PRAYER | PRODIGAL PEOPLE: PRAYING THEM HOME 1

Father, I bring _____ before You, but before I pray for them, I must pray for me. I repent Lord of any unforgiveness or bitterness that I have toward _____. I repent of my judgments and criticisms... even the hidden thoughts that were never uttered that I thought. Father heal me and redeem me first. Forgive my sin.

Cleanse my heart; don't let it grow cold. Let Your love penetrate even the dark corners in me and illuminate any hidden sin in my life, that I might be forgiven and be able to love _____ fully without any reservation.

Show me the words that I have spoken loosely without thinking and forgive me of the things that I have shared with others that I should not have.

As I look at my own heart Father, cleanse me of any prejudice; for my opinions and self-righteousness are as filthy rags. Forgive any words spoken by me that may have kept _____ in bondage.

And Lord forgive my unbelief. Forgive the times that I have doubted that You could redeem them, that You could ever change them. Forgive my lack of trust and bring me back to You, Father. Forgive my hard heartedness, my lack of praying... my opinions; for you never give up on us. I repent Lord, making no excuses for my sin. Heal me and save me first and bring me home.